Company Quality Information:

Certification:	Atlantic Components is ISO 9001:2008 Certified
ISO Standard:	ISO 9001:2008 / Exclusion 7.3
Registrar:	AVU Registrations
Certificate Number:	B00004-1 (a copy of our certificate can be obtained from your Inside Salesperson)
Quality Manager:	Raymond J. Cascio Jr.
Atlantic Components considers quality a very important part of our company. Senior Management is directly involved in our quality processes. As a small business it is not possible to have a full time person to orchestrate the processes associated with ISO. Atlantic Components utilizes a third part consulting firm to assist us with our ISO Certification and Compliance. This consultant assists us with Audits, Internal Audits, and administrative services associated with the ISO process.
Quality Consultant:	Ward 3 Pro Consulting, Mark E. Ward
Equipment:	Beyond counting scales, no equipment is used for product handling. Provisions for scale calibration are included in our ISO Procedures.
Inspection:	As is the norm for a distribution company, inspection of product consists of a verification of p/n, count, and inspection for physical damage or deformity of the product. NO ELECTRICAL or MECHANICAL INSPECTIONS ARE PERFORMED unless otherwise noted in writing.
Atlantic Components will provide, at your request, UNCONTROLLED COPIES of our quality manual or of an individual ISO procedure(s). Please request this through your Inside Salesperson.

Parts Authenticity

Atlantic Components certifies to the furthest extent of our ability that any and all electrical, electronic, and electromechanical parts (hereinafter parts) that we supply and/or deliver to our customer(s) are new and authentic, are not counterfeit, have not been marked or remarked to disguise or falsely represent the identity of the manufacturer, Part number, date code, constituent materials, or completed screening and testing of the Parts.

Atlantic Components can demonstrate, at your request that Parts are new and authentic by providing one or more of the following in connection with a purchase order:

- (1) if requested by a customer at the time of ORDER PLACEMENT, an original equipment manufacturer (OEM)'s original certificate of conformance (COC), and/or
- (2) if requested by a customer at the time of ORDER PLACEMENT, a record providing unbroken supply chain traceability of the Parts from the OEM, and/or
- (3) if requested by a customer at the time of ORDER PLACEMENT, test and inspection records demonstrating authenticity of the Parts.

Atlantic Components represents and warrants that our lower-tier vendors, suppliers, and subcontractors of Parts have supplied only new and authentic Parts and have not supplied counterfeit parts.
